COLLÈGE ROYAL
DES MÉDECINS ET CHIRURGIENS DU CANADA

On behalf of the Royal College and its more than 55 000 Fellows and Affiliates, we would like to extend our warmest congratulations to this year's Canadian Medical Hall of Fame inductees.

These six Canadians have made extraordinary contributions that have transformed the landscape of medicine and health sciences. Together we recognize their remarkable accomplishments, which range from research to advocacy, and acknowledge their hard work, passion and sacrifice.

The Royal College collaborates with the Canadian Medical Hall of Fame in recognizing exceptional individuals who strive to bring excellence in health care in Canada and around the world.

We are thrilled to join you in celebrating the legacies of these pioneering Canadians.

Once again, congratulations to the 2020 inductees!
